

Are you prepared for emergencies in Swale?

Join our FREE WEBINAR SERIES offered to anyone living in Swale to prepare your family and community for emergencies in your area

Choose the right training for your needs
January to March 2026

Swale (Kent) Flood Volunteer

Flooding is a major issue for many in Swale. Learn how to prepare and take actions before, during and after a flood, as well as preparation strategies and actions during a flood.

Swale (Kent) Storm Volunteer

Essential knowledge and practical skills to face increasingly frequent and intense storms happening in Swale

Swale (Kent) Community Emergency Planning

Feel confident to gather volunteers and develop your community emergency plan. Using real-life scenarios and practical examples, you will learn how to develop and maintain your plan.

Swale (Kent) Winter Prepared

Think ahead about how you can be resilient to risks caused by cold weather in the winter months and how you can support others around you too.

Swale (Kent) Preparing for Utilities Outage

Floods, heatwaves and storms bring many impacts that affect communities. Utilities outage is a major impact in Swale, including power and water outage. Know what to do if this happens to you.

Book here

